That is right. Adventure Scuba is on myspace.
Kid Rock is our friend, why not you?

Tis the Season to get new gear

What are you waiting for? Gwen Stefani would be so disappointed in you. Coming in to get new scuba gear gives you a chance to check out the new front door at Adventure Scuba. It looks exactly like the old one except there are no stickers on it and it's brand new. The wind likes to break things. First my heart and now the door – DAMN YOU ASTRAEUS!

Drysuit Season is Here

As the weather cools the diving gets better. Some of the local lakes that are off limits because of boats and bad viz are now on the diving agenda. Get a drysuit and start diving more. That's an order!

It's always the season for CPR Training

Mike is proud to announce our newest endeavor:

Ice Diver Season

You know you want to be an ice diver. YOU KNOW IT! Here is your chance – January 30th for the classroom portion. Dives will be determined by ice and weather. I guarantee this is the most fun you will ever have under ice.

NEW POOL THIS SEASON

West Bloomfield Family Aquatic Center
